

Rabia Siddique

Rabia is an Australian born criminal and human rights lawyer, a retired British Army officer, a former terrorism and war crimes prosecutor, a humanitarian, professional speaker, facilitator, coach and published author.

Rabia's book "Equal Justice" will be available to purchase for $35 (Cash Only) and Rabia will be more than happy to sign and personalise your copy. For more info on Rabia's story and the services she provides please visit:

www.rabiasiddique.com

Book Review, Summer 2014

Rabia Siddique's fascinating memoir chronicles not only a legal career dedicated to the pursuit of justice for herself and others, but also the life events that have shaped her.

With extreme honesty and insight, Equal Justice details her personal experience of the effects of racism, childhood sexual abuse, and later balancing a career with being a mother to triplet boys ... Despite the challenges and injustice Rabia has faced, Equal Justice is far from bleak – her writing style is concise and engaging, allowing the book to cover far more than can be described in a brief review. Due to Rabia's unique perspective, Equal Justice is an inspiring read that will appeal to a wide audience, and is a must for anyone interested in justice, human rights and international affairs.

